Karen Frey

3 Day Watercolor Painting Workshop

October 20-22, 2010, 9 AM to 4 PM, Pleasanton, CA • Fee: $295

Karen Frey will conduct a 3 day Watercolor Workshop at the Pleasanton Firehouse Arts Center during the NWS (National Watercolor Society) exhibit. The workshop will encompass a holistic approach to creating a painting. Karen will begin with her specific color palette and how it relates to wet-into-wet applications followed by compositional elements, and underpainting. Included are lectures and demonstrations and student exploration. The artist strives to work with individual students during their work time. (Limit: 16)

A graduate of the California College of Arts, Karen Frey is a Signature Member of the National Watercolor Society, Rocky Mountain National Watermedia, California Watercolor Association, Watercolor West, and an Honor Society Member of Watercolor USA. Her work has been published in "Painting the Many Moods of Light", North Light Books, "Best of Sketching and Drawing", Rockport Publishers, Artist's Magazine, Watercolor Magic, and Watercolor Magazine. Collectors of her work include the Springfield Art Museum Missouri, American Kennel Club, Kaiser Permanente, and other collections nationwide. See her work at www.karenfrey.com.
